Dear Seniors:

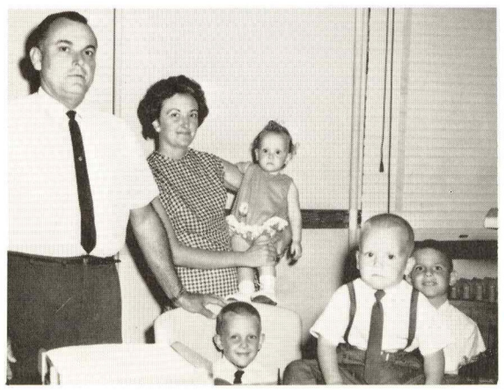
Congratulations! You have completed a major step in your quest for a formal education. You have proven that self-discipline, ambition, determination and effort have their reward. You are urged to continue your education to the fullest extent your talents permit, with the full realization that in the deepest sense, this process is continuous, lifelong and, in essence, without end. As you go your separate ways, always remember your parents who made sacrifices for you and who gave you words of encouragement along the way.

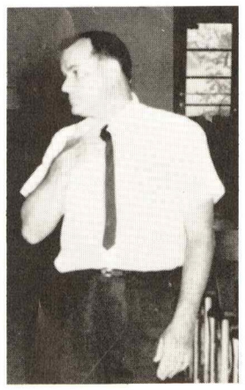
We hope your experiences at P.H.S. will help you to develop further into mature, competent, conscientious and loyal citizens with the vision to see the difference between knowledge and wisdom. Your teachers may have lighted the lantern and put it in your hands, but it is up to you to use it as you walk into the dark.

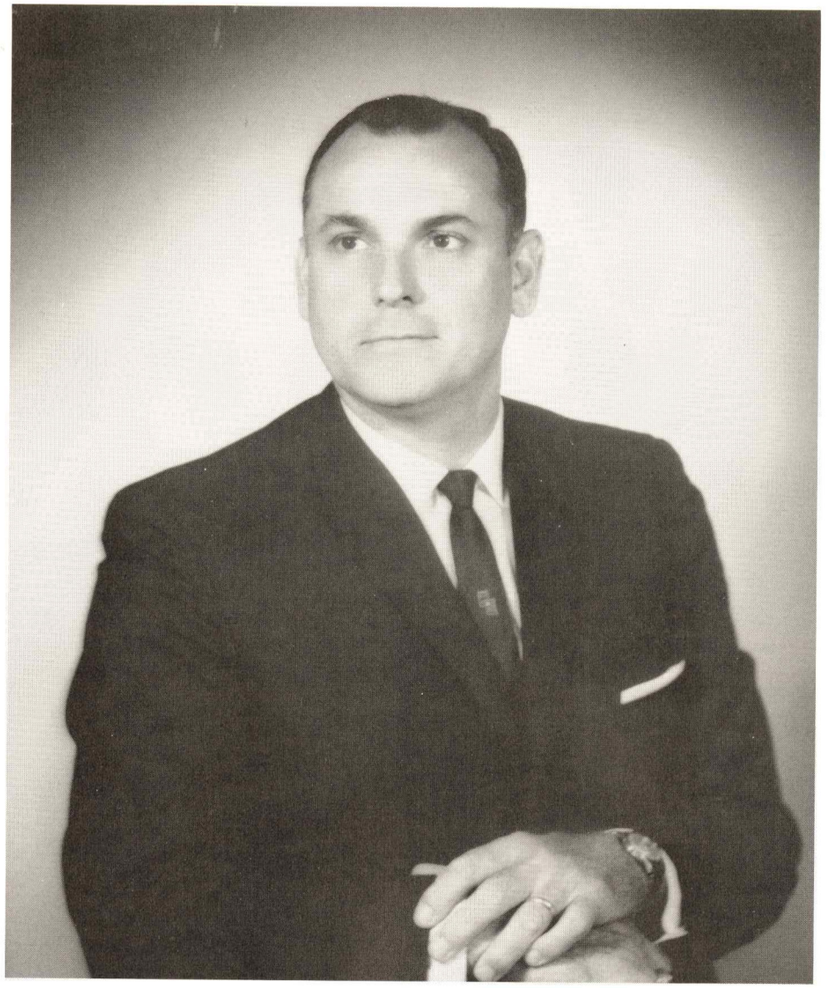
I am proud to have had even a small part in your development and to have shared some of your experiences. Good-bye, good luck, and may God bless you.

Very sincerely yours,

Aubrey Harrell Johnson







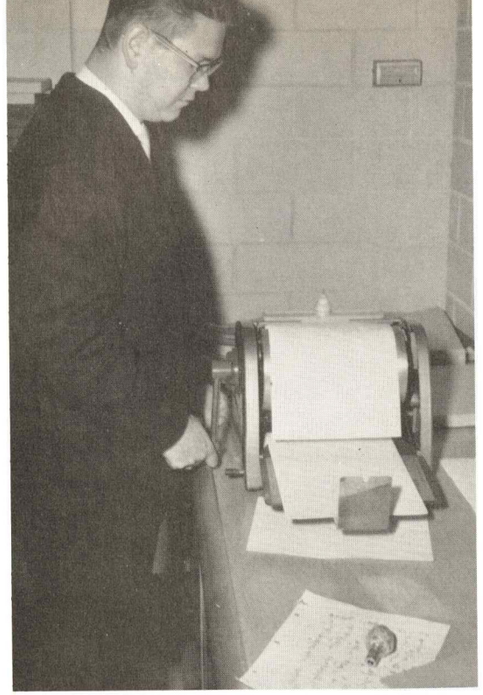
DEDICATION

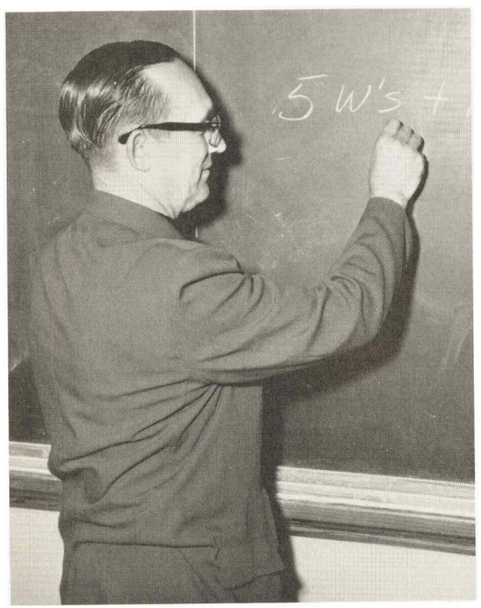
We, the students of Pascagoula High School, respectfully dedicate the 1965 PANTHER to a man who has devotedly served PHS for over twelve years, Mr. Aubrey Harrell Johnson.

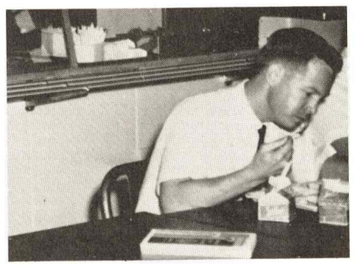
Under Mr. Johnson's impartial administration and capable leadership as principal, Pascagoula High School has achieved statewide recognition as a school with a student body which exemplifies superior citizenship and outstanding academic achievement.

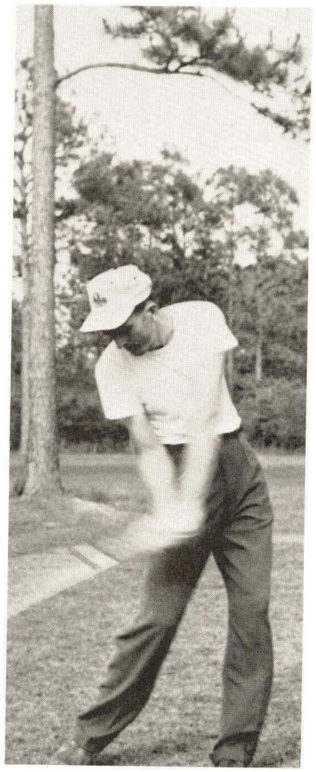
Some of Mr. Johnson's most outstanding contributions to PHS include the establishment of the school yearbook, THE PANTHER, a student handbook, and group portraits in the hall of graduating senior classes.

It is with great pride and admiration that we express our appreciation to Mr. Johnson, a man who has done so much for so many.









ADMINISTRATION

SCHOOL BOARD

Mrs. Margaret W. Gulley, President; Mr. Walter L. Smith, Secretary; Richard Sutherland III; Mr. W. T. Auara; Mr. T. W. Roberts.

PRINCIPAL
Mr. Aubrey Harrell Johnson

As principal of PHS, Mr. Johnson's duties include supervision of the efficient operation of school affairs, authorization of all expenditures, and serving in the capacity of chief disciplinarian.

Currently president of the Mississippi Association of Secondary School Principals, Mr. Johnson has held numerous high offices in the state in the field of education, and administration.

ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL
Coach Ken Seay

Pascagoula High School's Assistant Principal, Coach Ken Seay, has served PHS as a teacher, coach, and assistant principal for the past eleven years.

Coach Seay, who graduated from Pascagoula High School, operates efficiently behind the school scenes by keeping attendance checks, issuing passes, and checking students in and out of school.

Serving as sponsor of the school Student Council, he supervises Homecoming and during football season serves the Panthers as end coach.

Mr. G. C. Bosworth

IN APPRECIATION

We, the 1965 Panther staff, express our deepest appreciation to the sponsor of the annual, Mr. G. C. Bosworth.

A member of the PHS faculty for 8 years, Mr. Bosworth has sponsored the Panther for the past 5 years and been chairman of the English department for 6 years. Formerly Mr. Bosworth has sponsored the Wig Club and the Wig Club play, and as sponsor of Beta Club, initiated the Beta Follies.

In his capacity as the Panthers' sponsor, Mr. Bosworth serves as photographer, supervisor, and all-around advisor who contributes more than anyone else to the production of a successful yearbook at PHS.

Thank you, Mr. Bosworth, for all of your time and effort.

STUDENT DAY

Student Day at Pascagoula High School offers students the opportunity of serving as school, city, and county officials for one day.

Eligible candidates campaign for one week—using posters, songs, and slogans. During the campaign candidates present their platforms and views to the student body and elections are held.

Votes are tallied by school Key Club members, which sponsor the educational program of Student Day.

Candidates elected report to their new offices for one day, learn the duties of their job, and inform the PHS students, in a closing assembly, of their position during Student Day.

Student Day officials for 1965 were—

MAYOR	WILLIE WALLACE
CHIEF OF POLICE	DOUG JERKINS
SHERIFF	BRUCE ROBERTS
FIRE CHIEF	JIM QUEVAS
CITY ATTORNEY	JIM BARLOW
COUNTY ATTORNEY	BILL ANDERSON
CHANCERY CLERK	DIANE JONES
CIRCUIT CLERK	AULTON VANN
PRINCIPAL	CLEAMON DOWNS
ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL	RANDY BENNETT
SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION	DAVID STOKES
VOCATIONAL DIRECTOR	LEROY TRUSLER

Queen Margo Frederic and her 1965 Homecoming Court.

VOCATIONAL

Secretarial Training

Students enrolled in Secretarial Training meet morning class for three hours of business subjects and in the afternoon work at a part-time secretarial job. Students are under the direction of Mrs. Brenda Rankin.

Senior student, Ann Parish, demonstrates the use of the adding machine, one of the many business machines secretarial students learn to operate.

Future secretaries, Bonnie Elam, Claudette Smith, Linda Kendrick, and Judy Strange, check the results of a hard day's work.

Secretarial Training students also learn to master the skill of stencil, business, and letter typing.

DEPARTMENTS

Nurses' Training

Under the instruction of Mrs. Claudine May, Registered Nurse, approximately twenty seniors participate in the PHS Nurses' Training section of the vocational department.

Along with first hand experience at the near by Singing River Hospital, students also study current nursing practices.

Seniors from Our Lady of Victories and Moss Point High Schools may also participate.

Senior Debbie Maddux demonstrates the skill of injection.

Our Lady of Victories student, Patty Johnson, displays numerous pieces of nursing equipment used in the Nurses' Training Department.

Smiling future nurses make a healthy picture.

Clerical Training

Clerical Training, supervised by Mrs. Brenda Rankin, is a two-hour course teaching skills of business English, filing, office machine operating, and stencil cutting. Only seniors are eligible.

Glenda Burnett, Joyce Munn, and Shirley White practice the skill of stencil cutting.

Senior student, Tommie Sibley, demonstrates the use of the dictaphone and typewriter, one of the many fields of clerical study.

Cleaning machines is important as a maintenance measure practiced regularly and with care by the future clerical workers.

Students study surveying as one major course in Building Trades.

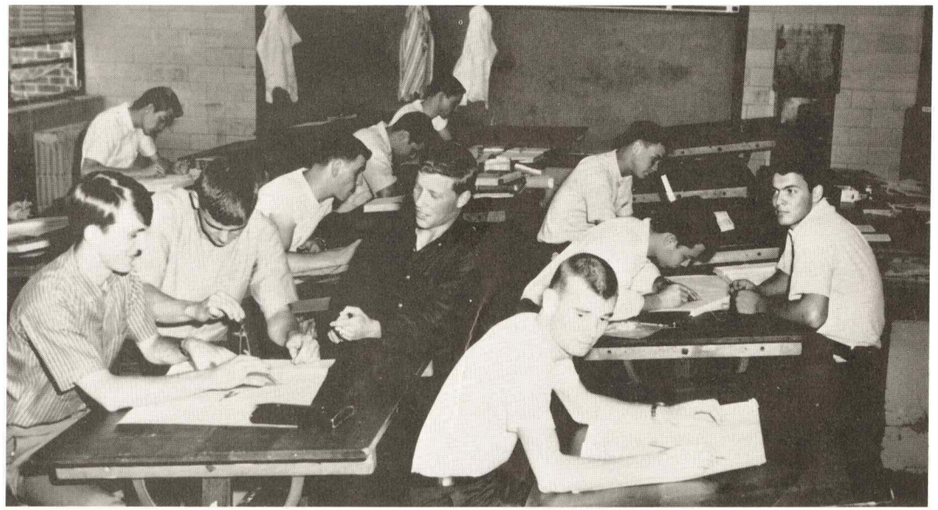
Building Trades

The Building Trades Department, directed by Mr. Troy Oglesbee, is one of the most useful departments in the vocational department.

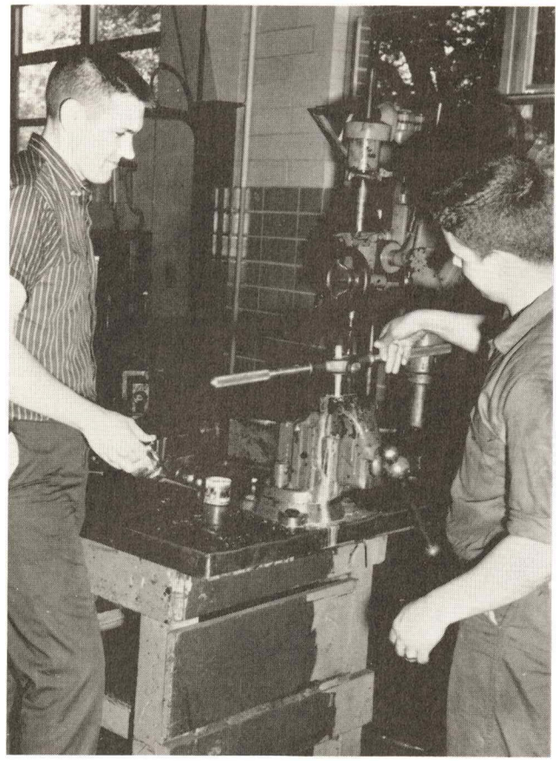
Building Trades boys study all techniques of house and frame building.

In conjunction with several other departments of the vocational department of PHS, the Building Trades group made speakers stands for teachers.

Industrial Drafting

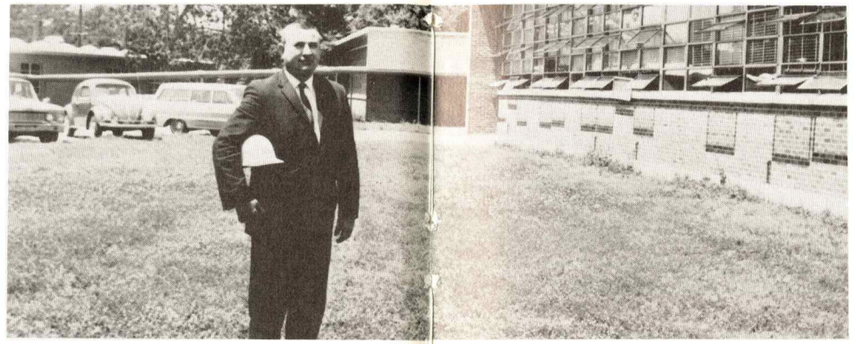


Industrial Drafting students, under the direction of Mr. F. D. Watts, learn the major and minor techniques of drafting during the two hour class.

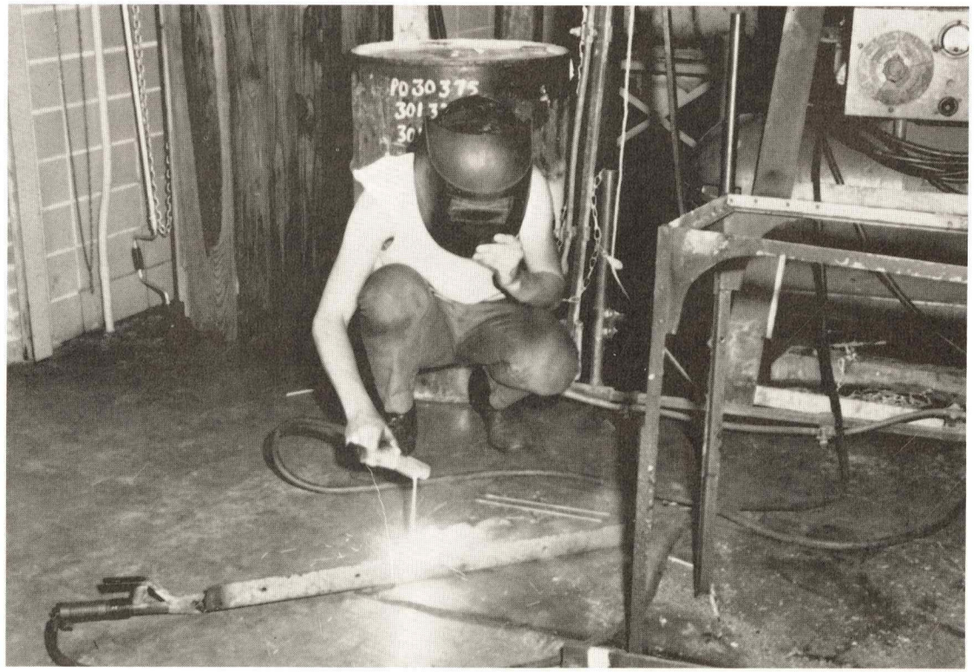


Machine Shop

Students enrolled in the Machine Shop practice the skills of welding and servicing heavy machinery. Boys are under the instruction of Mr. Robert Lynn. The Machine Shop is one of the new modern facilities in the developing phase of the Pascagoula High Vocational Department.



Vocational Director Aubrey Meaders



Sheet Metal Shop

Under the direction of Mr. Donald Carter, students participating in the Sheet Metal Trades Department study blueprints, construct metal objects, and learn important shop safety measures. This year the Sheet Metal Shop, in conjunction with the Building Trades Department, constructed wood and metal podiums for faculty members.

Letters To THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
PHS needs a counselor for the students to come to and seek help with personal problems plus the one for academic counseling. Many students have problems they cannot cope with and can't have them solved with parents or relatives about them, and need someone to confide in and help them with their problems.
Tony

ED: I'm not quite sure what you mean, but the problems you write about may have been pretty serious. Why don't you talk it over with your minister. He can give you the key to open a few doors.

Dear Editor,
In the past years in all auditorium assemblies the senior class sat in the front of the auditorium. Today the seniors sit at the very back while seniors sit at the very front. This is one of the few rewards allowed to seniors after barring (or even years from the back. I realize all seniors can't sit on the front row but we should have priority over juniors.
And when the programs are over, do we leave first? No! We leave as a mob. This never was the good old days.
Tommy Wilson

Dear Editor,
I think that the Panther Pen is very good. I haven't found any thing wrong with it.
Ed
We appreciate it!

FEAR IS NOT "OUTGROWN"

What is fear. When we were small children we were afraid to leave our mother's arms or sleep alone in a dark room. As we grew a little we were afraid of loud noises and big animals.
Then came that first day of school, a new life. When we had left our mother with that strange, strict lady called a teacher. As we went through school a few of the changes were made in our lives. We changed physically and mentally. We learned to accept fear as part of life and we tried to overcome our fears.
Then it seems we took a long jump. It started off just as another year. It started off with new teachers, new homework. It didn't seem any different at first. Then all of a sudden we were faced with some startling points. What next? Where do I go from here? Can I go to college? What will I do? What I want to do

March, 1965

Career Column—
TEACHERS BUILD MEN OF TODAY

The definition of teaching has been stated as the process by which one person helps or influences another. Skills and attitudes, knowledge provided by our schools and colleges are for this reason teaching provided by our teachers. Our modern life depends on the teaching profession to give us more people belong to the other professions than to any other. To be a good teacher one must have a patient, observant, and kind personality. A leader and a friend, working with other people. A good teacher must also be able to motivate his students. Teacher requirements vary in different states, however, to be able to teach in most public schools in the United States a teacher must have a state certificate. Certificates are not required for teaching in colleges or private and high school teachers have a college degree. Teaching certificates usually set forth requirements in terms of college courses or semester hours completed. Most states require elementary teachers to complete a specified course of study in college and receive a certificate upon completion of college programs that have been approved by the state's department of education.

A Teacher's Activities

Teaching, like any other profession, involves a wide variety of activities. Some of the duties of a teacher are: (1) giving instruction; (2) counseling students on individual problems; (3) conferring with parents; (4) grading papers, keeping records, and making out reports; (5) attending faculty meetings; (6) attending extra-curricular activities; and (7) participating in community affairs.

Teaching is an excellent profession and offers an excellent opportunities. Even though more people are in the teaching profession than any other profession in the United States, there is still a shortage of qualified teachers. Every year in the United States about 150,000 new teachers are needed for elementary and high schools, and about 20,000 in colleges and universities.
